

Strategy

- To employ suitably qualified staff
- To train staff to enable them to exceed the expectations of our principals and customers
- To initiate early supplier involvement in new programmes
- To develop and maintain customer relationships
- To develop a balanced strategy between aggressive, technical and service advantage and relationship selling
- To constantly review and improve methods of communication